WHY JEFF DAVIS! ISN'T TIED. Mr. Boutwell addressed the citizens of Marlboro' his district, on Wednesday evening, upon national matters, in the course of which he answered a question which was put to President Johnson at Cleveland, as follows:

Johnson had said to the crowd in Cleveland, "Why don't you ask Judge Chase why he don't jerry Jeff Davis?" Mr. Boutwell said he could answer that question for Judge Chase. The reason was because Jeff Davis was not held by any process issued at the court of justice. There was not a marshal this country who could lay his hand on the shoulders of Jeff. Davis, President Johnson, and Commander in Chief of the army, and by his protests him, and prevent the leaders of the law from trying him. It was the height of impudence for him to ask that question. He was not tried because President Johnson was in Chief of the army, and there was one question, the speaker said, which he would ask Mr. Johnson, and it was, did he bid yet to answer. It was this— "I would ask Mr. Johnson, if he would let me and commoner of the army, restrain this man, and hold him so he cannot train by any of the courts of law." Why did he not ask Mr. Johnson the other question, the speaker said? "The man is entitled to speedy trial?"

bolt, which was also taken, so that he has by way stopping their negotiation or payment. After the villains had completed their job they took their heads and the saw more of them. — [Lafayette (Ind.) Journal.]
